If the mouse cursor only acts erratically or jumps around while playing a video game, the computer may not have enough RAM or video memory. If this is the case, it can result in reduced functionality of the mouse. If the graphics card in the computer is underpowered, the video game often experiences graphics lag.

Mouse acting erratically, jumping, or is not moving properly

If the cursor is jumping around after working properly for ages, it could be a hardware error or mouse failure. Mice are cheap so buy or borrow another mouse, plug it into your computer, let Windows 10 detect the change and retest. If the cursor stops jumping, the issue is with your mouse. If it still happens, it isn't the mouse.

I can't move around or jump in building mode. Either in Commonwealth or Far Harbor. That causes a problem when I play Far Harbor, trying to do the memory quest. I play on a PC using keyboard and mouse (Trackman) I use the arrows as moving forward, backward, strafe left and right. R-shift for jumping, R-ctrl for sneak. When I am in building mode I can't move around at all nor jump.
