The lie that you have to take out student loans in order to be able to afford college is maybe the biggest money trap in our country today—and it's led to an over $1.6 trillion student loan crisis. 1. You guys, there are plenty of ways to pay for college totally without loans. Choosing an affordable school, applying for grants and scholarships, having a job, and knocking out some credit hours at a community college before transferring to a four-year school are just a few of the ways you ...
